Students who fail to comply with dress code/uniform regulations will need to have their parents bring them the appropriate uniform attire before being admitted to class. The local school administration reserves the right to make the final judgment regarding uniform, hair appropriateness and jewelry. The administration reserves the right to modify the dress code for special occasions such as field day or spirit day. Three (3) violations of the mandatory uniform attire makes your child ineligible for the Citizenship Award and will result in disciplinary action.

- 1st Violation: A uniform violation letter and a call to the parent(s) from the teacher.
- 2nd Violation: A uniform violation letter and a call to the parent(s) from the teacher.
- 3rd Violation: A uniform violation letter and a call to the parent(s) from the Principal.

4th Violation: Parents will be required to come in for a conference with the school administration, and the student's enrollment will be placed on probation. Further Violation of the School Contract uniform component will result in the student returning to his/her home school
